Enillodd Hanna Jones o Ysgol Glan Clwyd y wobr gyntaf yn y categori 11-18 am ei thirwedd anhygoel o Tuscany.

Derbyniodd enillwyr eleni wobr ariannol tuag at brynu deunyddiau celf ar gyfer eu hysgol,

Over three hundred children and young people from local authority Primary and Secondary schools across the county of Denbighshire have taken part in The Sir Kyffin Williams Denbighshire Schools Art Competition 2018, a brand-new art competition, this year commemorating the 100th anniversary since his birth.

Sir John "Kyffin" Williams, KBE RA RCA (1918-2006), was a Welsh landscape painter who lived at Pwllfanogl, Llanfairpwll, on the Island of Anglesey. He is widely regarded as "Wales' best known painter and one of the defining artists of the 20th century".

The competition, which will be held annually, aims to encourage anyone aged 18 or under, attending a local authority school in Denbighshire, to get creative and express themselves creatively, and welcomes art across all mediums, including drawing, textiles, sculpture, painting, printmaking, mixed media, photography and digital media.

Welsh artist and 2018 competition judge, Keith Bowen, had high praise for the quality and creativity of the 300+ submissions this year.

Lucy Roberts from Ysgol Bro Dyfrdwy came first in the 5-7 category for her remarkable portrait drawing skills, while Class 4, Gardeners' Group from Ysgol y Castell earned the top prize in the 7-11 category for their birds sculpture and were praised for their exceptional observational skills. Hanna Jones from Ysgol Glan Clwyd was awarded first prize in the 11-18 category for her amazing Tuscany landscape.

This year's winners received a cash prize towards the purchase of art materials for their dosbarth meistr celf gyda Keith Bowen ei hun yn Nhymor yr Hydref 2018 ac, fel braint cyffrous ychwanegol, gwahoddiad i arddangos eu gwaith buddugol fel rhan o 'Angerdd i Gymru' - Yn Cofio Celf Kyffin Williams PPRCA yn Academi Frenhinol y Cambrian, Conwy, o 10 Mai - 30 Mehefin 2018.

Bydd arddangosfa o 79 o ddarnau o waith gan blant a phobl ifanc Sir Ddinbych a gyflwynwyd ac a ddewiswyd hefyd yn cael eu harddangos ym Mhencadlys Cyngor Sir Ddinbych, Ffordd Wynnstay, Rhuthun, o 10 Mai tan 1 Mehefin 2018, cyn trosglwyddo i Academi Frenhinol y Cambria, Conwy, fel rhan o'i 136ain Arddangosfa Haf Blynyddol o 7 Gorffennaf tan 8 Medi 2018.

Gall ymwelwyr i arddangosfa Rhuthun bleidleisio dros eu hoff, gyda'r darn o'r safon uchaf yn ennill 'Gwobr Dewis y Bobl'.

school, an art masterclass with Keith Bowen himself in the Autumn Term 2018 and, as an additional thrill, an invitation to exhibit their prize-winning entries as part of 'A Passion for Wales' - Kyffin Williams PPRCA Centenary Celebration at the Royal Cambrian Academy, Conwy, from 10 May – 30 June 2018.

An exhibition of 79 selected submissions from Denbighshire children and young people will also feature at Denbighshire County Council Headquarters, Wynnstay Road, Ruthin, from 10 May until 1 June 2018, before transferring to the Royal Cambrian Academy, Conwy, as part of its 136th Annual Summer Exhibition from 7 July until 8 September 2018.

Visitors to the Ruthin exhibition are able to vote for their favourite, with the top-rated piece winning the 'People's Choice Award'.
